PREFACE

The following pages contain as complete a record of the eleven (11) children of JOEL R. JONES and JANE McELREATH and their descendants as it is possible to obtain by July 15, 1982.

This production, it is hoped, is a working copy or first edition. It remains far from complete. Some BRANCHES are well worked out, others not. This unevenness lies partly with the factor of time. The editor feels the pressure now of publishing what is available, otherwise it may lie idle or fall by the wayside.

Research has been done, and will continue, to ascertain more about our "roots" as far back as possible, and to bring the present generations into focus wherever missing. Anyone having data not included in this printing is asked to send it to the undersigned. Especially wanted are dates of births, deaths, marriages, place of burial, newspaper clippings (new and old) about members of the Jones Family; authentic copies of Wills, Land Grants and Service Records. Family traditions always add interest.

We have come into a heritage which we did not create, but our responsibility is to preserve it. This is not a treatise of celebrities in a worldly sense. They are celebrities to us because they are our family.

In a task this size errors are bound to happen. For them we ask for your understanding and trust you will mail corrections to the undersigned.

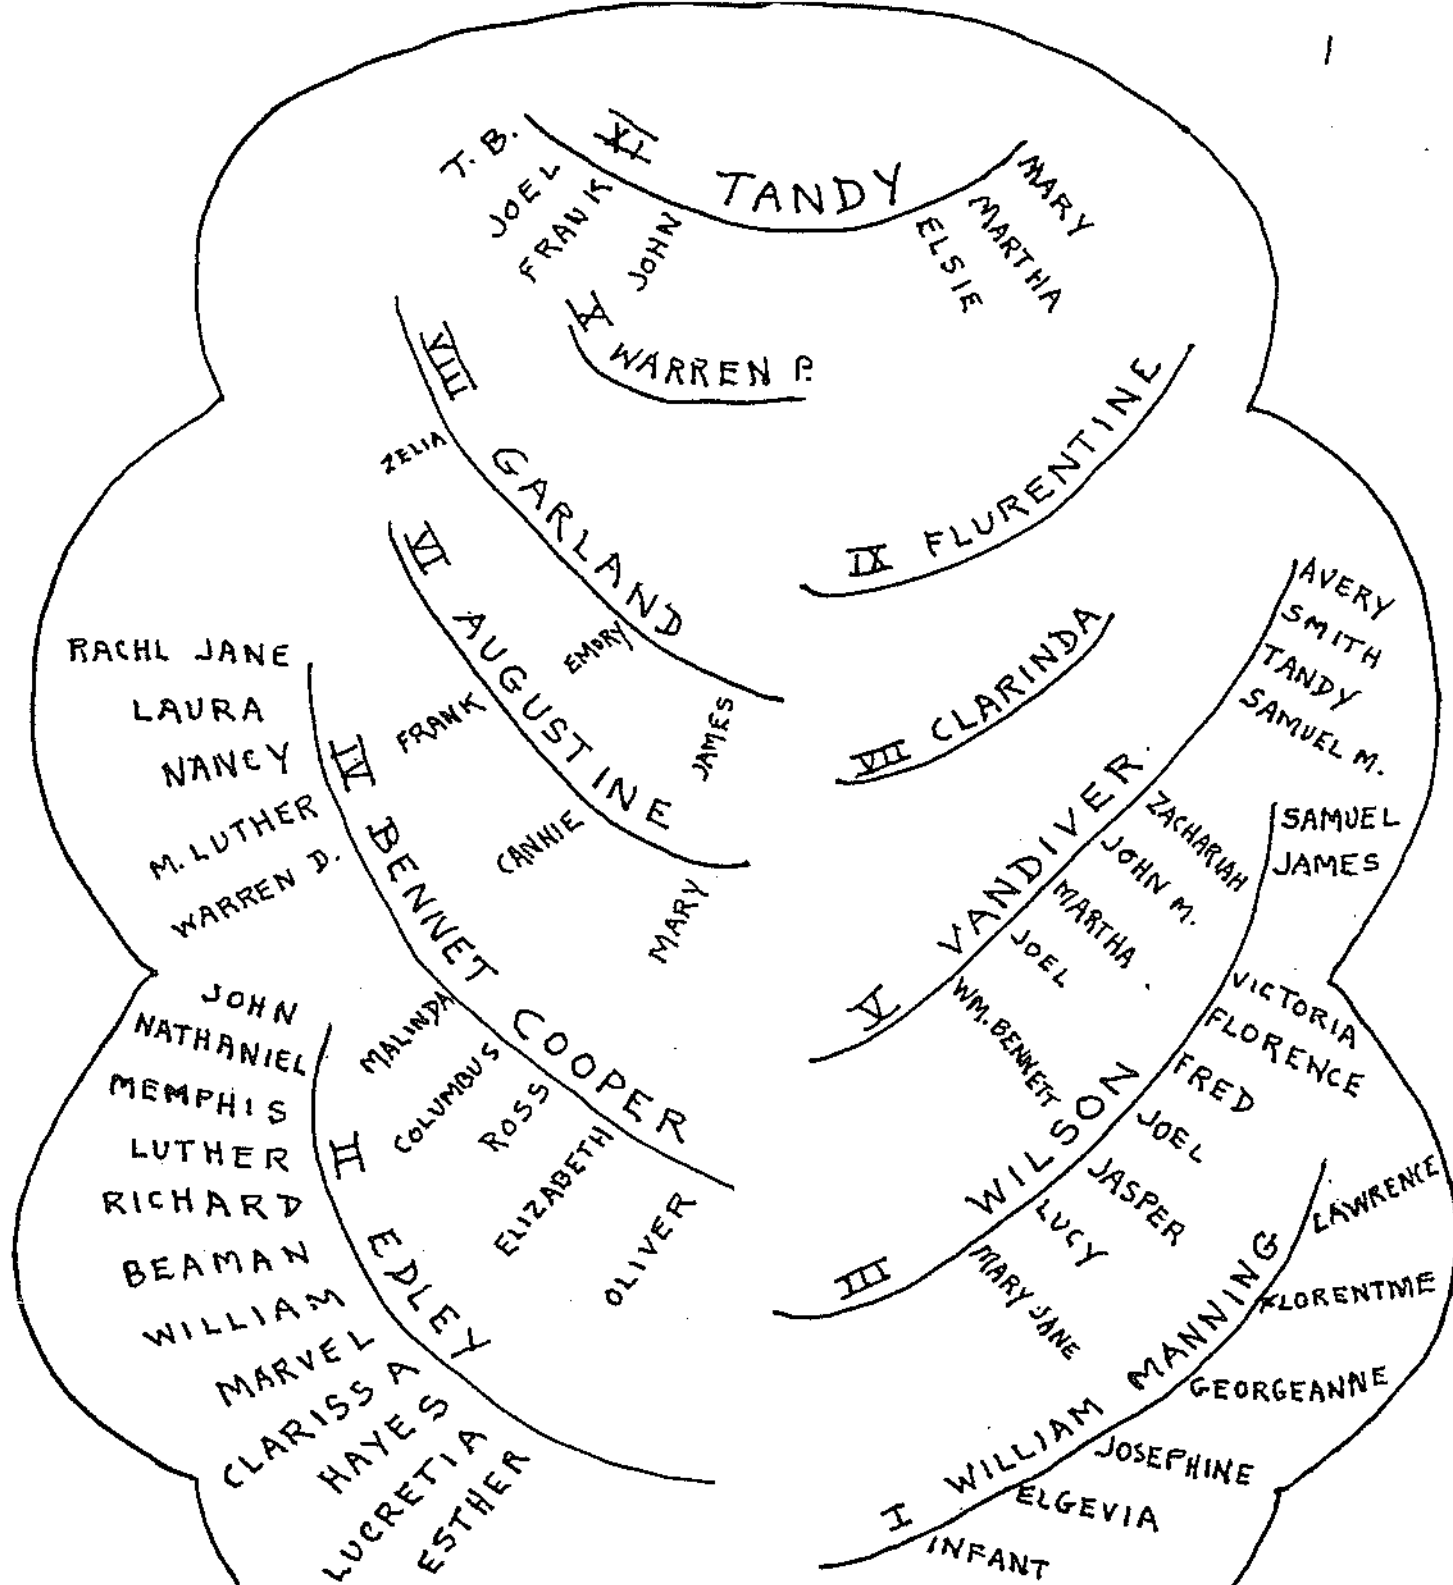

Many persons assisted in compiling these data. To name them all would require a repetition of much of the genealogy. Three, however, are outstanding. Mrs. Ruth (Williams) Bishop of Greer, SC, Mr. Doyle Jones and Mr. Pinckney Maxwell both of Greenville, SC.

For her diligence and care in typing the final manuscript, I would like to acknowledge my daughter, Carolou Fidder Marquet, of Concord, MA. And to my husband, Walter Fidder, I give very special thanks for his many hours of help as well as support and encouragement in so many other ways.

JONES FAMILY HISTORY

This book of lineage records is a tribute to the ability of our ancestors to adapt to a rigorous frontier life. Through their dedication to the family unit and to God, Joel R. and Jane Jones and their descendants have bequeathed to us a rich legacy of pride in our heritage. May we pause through these pages to reflect on lives well-lived that still in many ways reflect on our own lives.

The year was perhaps 1819 when Joel R. Jones and Jane McElreath Jones left Charleston with their two small children to seek land grants in the backwoods frontier of the Oolenoy Valley in upper South Carolina. The Cherokee Indian Nations had ceded this land to South Carolina in 1783 and it was rapidly being populated by settlers from South Carolina as well as other States.

Perhaps these rolling verdant hills and towering peaks reminded Joel and Jane of their parents' tales of the bonnie highlands of Scotland, from which their forefathers had fled to Ireland, then to America to escape religious oppression.

Not much is known of the parents of Joel R. Jones. We know through a hand-written history, handed down through the generations that Joel R. Jones' father was born in 1740, died en route to America from Ireland and was buried at sea. We know nothing of the mother of Joel R. Jones. Jane McElreath's father was Michael McElreath.

Just off Peachtree Street on Andrews Road, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia stands lovely McELREATH HALL which houses the Atlanta Historical Society. Walter McElreath, a direct descendant of Michael McElreath, gave fifteen million dollars for this purpose. Walter's book, "Me and My Folks" is in this building. In the book Walter states that the McElreath's were originally from Scotland, then migrated to County Antrim, Ireland and thence to America. Michael McElreath (Jane's father) and two brothers came to Spartanburg County, South Carolina around 1800 and migrated to Carroll County, Georgia prior to the Civil War. Walter McElreath was born 1867 and died in 1951. His father was William Andrew McElreath and his mother was Matilda Jane McEachern. Walter describes the McElreath's as thrifty, brave and staunch with a certain timidity of manner. Walter and his wife had no children.

The first legal document that we have seen is a deed dated 1820 from Michael McElreath to Joel Jones for land which was in the Pendleton District of South Carolina, now Anderson County.

Pendleton District comprised what is now Pickens, Oconee and Anderson Counties. The 1820 census lists Joel R. Jones, his wife, and two children living in this district. The 1810 census does not enumerate this family in the Pendleton District.

JONES FAMILY HISTORY - Cont'd

Joel and Jane Jones had eleven children who lived to maturity. Two of the men were Captains of the Confederate forces in the Civil War and two others lost their lives, one in combat and one as a result of typhoid contracted during the war.

Some Jones descendants migrated to western states but most settled in South Carolina and raised large families who have contributed much to their communities and to our State.

We are proud of our noble ancestors and hope that this book will serve to honor their memories and to inspire like contributions from those of us who remain.

We all owe much to our cousin Darlene Jones Fidler. She has labored tirelessly seeking our roots. I am sure that she will agree with me that "keeping up with the Joneses" has truly been a labor of love.

Family graveyard

The Jones family graveyard as it appeared a hundred years ago. When it was found recently it was completely covered by vines and dense undergrowth but the marble headstones and the little fence were still standing and in very good condition. Individuals in the photo are identified as Allen and Elgevin Edens and daughter Alma, and Jim Trotter.

William Manning Jones' service record verifies he was Captain of Co. H, 3rd S.C. Reserves. Enlisted at Greenville, S.C. 11-14-1862 and had basic training at Camp Goldsmith, Pocotaligo, S.C. Source: Confederate Service Records, National Archives, Micro 267 - Roll 182.

He served valiantly in the Civil War and according to Att'y Clarke Walden of Dania, FL it is legendary that Manning was present at Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox Courthouse, VA. Manning's sabre and canteen are in the Citadel Museum in Charleston, SC donated by Jack Hendrix--an alumnus of Citadel and a direct descendant of Capt. W. M. Jones.

Sydney and his 2 brothers, J.Q. and W.E., were storekeepers in partnership beginning in 1898. J.Q. went into dentistry and W.E. into civil service, but Sydney continued until his death in 1952. Sydney bought the first auto in Oolenoy Valley in 1915 for $530.00. His daughter, Sarah Edens Clarke, reminds us that Sydney had a loving concern for people especially country folk when they had no cash to buy food and clothing, and the store was a happy gathering place.

Dr. J.Q. attended dental school in Philadelphia. He set up an office in Clearwater, Kansas and later in Kansas City. It was not uncommon for him to set up a dental chair in the living room when he would come home for visits. Many family members and friends from a wide area would have their dental needs taken care of this way.

Civil War Record--Enlisted at Greenville, SC Nov. 14, 1862. 1st Lieut., Co. H, 3rd SC Reserves (90 days 1862-63). Capt. Co. B, 1st SC State Troops (6 mos. 1863-1864). Died in Pickens District age 43. His widow, Nancy Jones, filed claim for settlement Jan. 26, 1865--So. Car. Dept. of Archives and History, Columbia, SC 29211

Seven of Bennett's children were under age 16 when their father died which attests to the courage and stamina of their mother, Nancy, in keeping the large family together. Family unity was big in those days and it is entirely possible that Nancy received encouragement and support from Joel and Jane and others in the Jones family.

Tilman Bennett Owens was a very well known and popular person in the old Easley Mill Community. For many years he was in the grocery business, at the old Munday Store in Easley. Later on he was a very successful agent for the Life Insurance Company of Virginia. All of the nine children were employed by the Old Easley Mill. One of Bennett's great joys was for his wife and nine children to go annually on a week's camping trip and this was practiced until death. He also loved flowers and was noted for always having a pretty yard with flowers. He was also a great churchman, a charter member of the Easley Mill Methodist Church, where he served as superintendent of Sunday School. Later on his son George Thomas Owens also served as superintendent and later a grandson, George Thomas Owens, Jr. served in the same capacity. For many years Bennett led the singing in the church and was followed after his death by his son W. Lawrence who also led the singing for many years. Lawrence was followed by his son W. Thomas, who played the organ and directed the choir for many years.

An important date in life of the T. Bennett Owens family was February 8; Bennett and Sarah Lou were married February 8, 1892. Their first son, J. Leo, was born two years later on February 8, 1894. Their second son, George Thomas Owens, was born February 8, 1896. A grandson, Leon Owens, son of James Tilman Owens, Sr. was married to Bernice Pressley on February 8. So this date is a special date in the life of this family. Bennett would invite friends in on this date with the family for what he called a "Big Blow-Out", an annual birthday-anniversary party. This practice was followed even after his death by his children for many years. There have been several politicians in the family. Son, George Thomas Owens served as Alderman for many years. Son, Earl Russell Owens served as Coronor of Pickens County for two terms. A grandson, Joseph Bennett, son of Leo also served as Alderman and just recently retired from this position and has been honored by the city of Easley, South Carolina as its Citizen Of The Year. Presently a grandson Larry Bagwell, son of Maude is serving on the city council. Larry is also well known and popular in the city of Easley as he is the coach of the very successful Easley High School Greenwave Football Team that has had quite a bit of recognition in the state for a winning football team. Another grandson, Marion Charles Owens, son of Earl Russell is presently Chairman of the Pickens County Council.

The Owens family is a very close knit family and we have a great heritage and are very proud of it. We share not only our accomplishments, but we also share one another's problems and concerns.

William Lawrence Owens and three of his brothers were the Owens Quartette and sang for many years in surrounding counties. When their brother Earl retired, due to illness, a sister, Ruby, sang with them until Tom died and the quartette carried on for a while with nephews singing. At the present time Ruby and two nieces, Juanita Simson and Ida Lou Pitts, daughters of G. Tom Owens, are known as the Owens Trio and sing for the Robinson Funeral Home in Easley, SC.

Samuel and Elizabeth's home still stood as of 1980 and two sons, John Paul and Fulton lived in it. The family was very active in the Oolenoy Baptist Church. There are interesting insights into this family recorded in the book "Echoes" by Alma Lynch and Elizabeth Ellison on pages 43-50 and 177, 178, and 183.

"Garland is buried in the beautiful Thornrose Cemetery in the City of Staunton, VA. There is a section with monument etc. for Confederate soldiers. It is not possible to point to a spot and say 'Here lies' but the records give his date of burial and cause of death--typhoid fever. His regiment was 2nd S.C., Company H."--Rudolph L. Shaver, Clerk, Circuit Court of Augusta County, Staunton, VA 24401

Garland's will was recorded in Pickens County July 4, 1862 Box 70 #750. See also Vol. II, "A Collection of Upper South Carolina Genealogical and Family Records" by Wooley. After Garland's death his wife, Grace, apparently married Mr. W. N. Hughes. The two boys, James Henry and Emory, were still minors.
